How She Got Here

Jennie began cycling with her sister, Laura. As early as 1994, she was racing to top finishes in national events. She came in first in the 2km time trial at the USCF Junior National Track Cycling Championship in 1994. By 1995 and 1996, Jennie competed with the U.S. Junior World Championship Team, and by 1997 was 37th in the UCI World Track Rankings and a member of the World Championship Team. She quickly moved through the ranks and found herself ranked 13th in the world at the end of 1998. She has continued to progress and is now at the top of the U.S. women's rankings.
