Call-up Procedures

Call-ups will be determined by methods specific to each class. Priority is indicated by numerical order below. Riders qualifying for call-ups with the top-3 methods will have the option to do the Time Trial (TT).

Elite, U23

Call-up Priority	Method
1	Defending National Champion from previous year (same class)
2	Order of UCI rankings as of Tuesday, December 7, 2010 at 5:00pm/EST
3	Riders without UCI ranking points will be called-up by random order

Juniors

Call-up Priority	Method
1	Defending National Champion from previous year (same class)
2	The seven (7) best placed riders returning to the same age class from the previous year's National Championships (finishers 2-7)
3	The National Champion from the next younger age class the year before if he/she has since moved to the next age class
(4-Male 17-18)	Order of UCI rankings as of Tuesday, December 7, 2010 at 5:00pm/EST
4 (5)	Seeding time trial finish time
5 (6)	Riders not finishing the seeding time trial will be called-up by random order after the first four (4) methods

Masters

Call-up Priority	Method
1	Defending National Champion from previous year (same class)
2	The seven (7) best placed riders returning to the same age class from the previous year's National Championships (finishers 2-7)
3	The National Champion from the next younger age class the year before if he/she has since moved to the next age class
4	Seeding time trial finish time
5	Riders not finishing the seeding time trial will be called-up by random order after the first four (4) methods

Collegiate

Call-up Priority	Method
1	Defending National Champion from previous year (same class)
2	Conference Champion, as determined by each Conference Director (in randomly determined order)
3	One rider per team, called one team at a time, in order of the 2009-2010 USA Cycling Collegiate National Team Rankings. Once each team has a rider called to the line, the method will be repeated until all riders have been staged.

Time Trial (TT)
Location	Northwest Crossing
Length	8-12 minutes
Start Time	Based on class, TT start times will be assigned once online registration closes. Riders registering on-site will be placed at end of their class slot for their TT day.
Required?	The time trial is optional for riders wishing to have their call-up order determined by the TT. Riders opting NOT to do the TT will be called-up after defending National Champion, top-7 finishers from previous year, younger age-group Champion (moved up), and time trial finishers.
Entry Fee	The TT is included in the race entry fee cost.
Missed start time	If a rider misses their assigned start time, they will be considered a no show.
