

THE WORLD RETURNS TO THE VELO SPORTS CENTER
FOR THREE DAYS THIS NOVEMBER

TECHNICAL GUIDE

NOVEMBER 22-24, 2013

Event Information

The Los Angeles Grand Prix (LAGP) is a three day international caliber track cycling event held at the VELO Sports Center (VSC) on the campus of StubHub Center (SHC). The LAGP will serve as a point accumulation opportunity for athletes to qualify for the UCI World Cups later in the year. In addition to hosting domestic and international elite competitors the race will also integrate adaptive sport by running events that will make up the 2013 U.S. Paralympics Track Cycling National Championships. The VELO Sports Center is owned and operated by AEG. AEG has a long standing history in premier cycling events including; 2004 UCI Junior World Championship, 2005 UCI Elite World Championships, 2006-2008 UCI World Cups, and most notably the Amgen Tour of California.

Regulations

Article 1. Organization

The 2013 Los Angeles Grand Prix is organized by the VELO Sports Center at StubHub! Center, under the regulations of the International Cycling Union (UCI). The race will be held from November 22-24, 2013. The race directors are Adam Duvendeck and Christopher Reed. The organization address is:

Article 2. Type of Event

The event is open to athletes of the Men's and Women's Elite categories, along with select events for Men's and Women's Jr. Categories. The event is entered on the UCI Track Calendar and has been assigned a UCI Class 1 Ranking. Reference the UCI website - www.uci.ch for point breakdown. This event will also serve as the U.S. Paralympics Track Cycling National Championships.

Article 3. Participation

As per article 3.4.004 of the UCI Regulations, the event is open to National Teams, Registered Track Trade teams, and elite riders holding a UCI licence aged 18 and over. The age of a rider shall be determined by the difference between the year of the last leg of the applicable world cup and the year of his/her birth. Junior competition is open to Juniors 16-18 years of age holding a USA Cycling or UCI License of category 3 or higher.

Para-Cycling - Para cycling athletes must be class C1-5 or M/WB with a USA Cycling racing License.

Article 4. Race Headquarters

The race headquarters will be held at the VELO Sports Center at the address given above.

Team representatives or individuals competing are requested to confirm their starters and collect their race numbers at the VELO Sports Center Lobby from 3pm-5pm on Thursday November 21st, 2013.

The team managers/riders meeting is scheduled to be held at 5pm on Thursday November 21st, 2013. The meeting will take place in section 113 of the VSC Stands.
